FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

San Mateo Credit Union Celebrates Its Fifth Year at the On Broadway Branch with Gifts for Members

As San Mateo Credit Union (SMCU) commemorates the fifth birthday of its On Broadway branch, located at 830 Jefferson Avenue in Redwood City, the gifts are all for members—both existing and new. To mark the occasion, SMCU is celebrating with a wealth of special offers that all revolve around the number five.

Members can enjoy a gift of $5 when they refer a friend to membership in SMCU. The credit union will deposit $50 into each newly opened SMCU checking account. Qualified homebuyers can get an appraisal rebate up to $500 off on a first mortgage. Those who are approved for a new Visa® Platinum credit card will receive a bonus of 5000 CURewards™ points, which can be redeemed for credit union products, merchandise, and travel options. And members who fund a vehicle loan through the credit union will be given a $50 gas card.

These specials are available exclusively at SMCU's On Broadway location, and can be redeemed from June 13 through July 2, 2011. In addition to the five-focused offers, SMCU is also featuring auto loan rates as low as 1.99% on new vehicles and 2.99% on used vehicles.

In honor of the On Broadway birthday celebration, all membership fees will be waived during the promotional period. Membership is available to anyone who lives, works, or attends school in San Mateo County or the City of Palo Alto.
